Michiganders Launch Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra

Holland, Mich. - Pete Hoekstra today thanked the founders of Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra for helping unite center-right Michiganders in support of Hoekstra's campaign for the U.S. Senate.

Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra sent a letter to voters today asking them to endorse the former congressman and join the group which will act as a Michigan-wide grassroots movement in support of Hoekstra. To view the full letter, please click here.

"Michigan conservatives understand the gravity of the upcoming election," said Hoekstra. "Debbie Stabenow and President Obama's big-spending agenda has ballooned our debt to over $14 trillion and failed to alleviate Michigan's double-digit unemployment rate. I am grateful for the support of Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra, and I am ready to fight for fiscal responsibility as Michigan's next U.S. Senator."

Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra is a statewide effort led by Mike Bishop (Southeast Michigan), Bill Cooper (West Michigan), Jack Hoogendyk (Southwest Michigan), Linda Lee Traver

(Mid-Michigan), and Wes Dilworth (Northern Michigan).

"Pete Hoekstra is the kind of conservative leader Michiganders need to represent their interests in Washington and turn this country's economy around," said Mike Bishop, one of Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra co-founders. "There is a lot of support for Pete across the state. Grassroots Conservatives for Hoekstra is excited to bring conservative voices together and work towards putting Pete Hoekstra in the U.S. Senate."
